Langham Culture, Parks and Recreation – Margot Orr

Community Park

- We have received donations from the SaskTel Pioneers, Langham Museum and Sela Balzer for benches in Community Park, we now have all the funds we need for the 5 benches that will be going in during this phase of the park. Concrete pads will be laid in the next couple of weeks to secure the benches.
- The spray park is complete and the sod went in yesterday, it will take 6 weeks for the sod to take so the park will be fully functional next year.

Super Summer Events

- The Super Summer events program will be coming to a close with one final event this evening. We will be having a movie night at the hall, entry will be by donation. All proceeds will be going to Langham KidSport. The summer has gone really well, we have had around 30 regular participants in the program and have heard a lot of great positive feedback. I wanted to thank the museum and library for hosting the program as well as the numerous businesses around town that have helped with the events.

Lagoon

- Cells one and two are complete and they will be filling them soon. The force main is complete and everything is still on schedule to be complete by the end of November.

By-Election

- The By-Election to fill two councillor positions is coming up. Advanced polls are on the 12th of September and the polls will be open on September 19th.

Arena

- The ice at the arena will be going in early this year. We have a lot of bookings already which is keeping our facility Manager really busy.

Passport to Langham

- Passport to Langham is coming up on September 6th. We still have quite a few tables left so if there are any groups that would be interested in having a table for the event please let me know.

Christmas Craft and Trade Fair

- The Knox united Church has generously volunteered to run the lunch at the craft fair this year on November 17th. Tables for this event are filling up fast so please let me know if you would like a table for your group Asap, tables are $20.

Langham Evangelical Bible Church- Greg Guarnett

- Jeremy Wall will be starting at the Bible Church as the Youth Director this coming fall.
